

Chemical Right to Know Information

The Agency shall have a program to identify hazardous chemicals and to transmit that information to employees by means of a comprehensive written hazard communication program. Hazardous chemical information shall also be transmitted to the public and to Emergency Response personnel as required.

“The Chemical Right to Know Law and Rules” program shall be administered by the Chief Administrator or a designee.

Adopted: 03-13-03
Reviewed: 11-2-16