

CONNECTING THE DOTS

Collaborative Inquiry,
School Improvement &
Teacher Leadership

OUR VISION

In schools where the achievement gap is being closed, what mindsets, policies, roles, structures and supports allow for that? It's time we connect the dots between school improvement, teacher leadership, and teams to complete the picture of a successful MTSS framework.

- Engage in meaningful learning to support your school improvement plans and learner needs.
- Leverage your teams within the collaborative inquiry process.
- Jenni Donohoo, Ann Mausbach and Diane Sweeney will help build capacity in teams to share feedback to impact student learning and help examine student data to monitor and adjust the universal tier.
